ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Central Purchasing Warehouse Website Has Been Launched!

You can browse and add items to your cart, make a shipping request to the Mail Center, view past orders, and much, much more!

Not sure how to do something? Check out the Help menu for Q&A's, tutorials, and how to get in touch with an associate from Central Purchasing.

We hope you find time to explore the new website, it has been redesigned to be more inviting and user friendly.

COVID-19 Updates

The Office of Strategic Communications has developed a website with information regarding FHSU's response to the coronavirus pandemic. This includes FAQ's for faculty, staff, students and university stakeholders, a record of university updates, as well as recommendations and resources for health and wellness. Please see the website: <https://www.fhsu.edu/covid-19-response>

TILT Tip: Personal Meeting Room in Zoom

Personal Meeting IDs (PMI) in Zoom offer the flexibility of online office hours or a meeting on the fly. Learn how to establish your PMI with a unique number - like your phone number - to make it easy to send a meeting ID or put in your office hours. <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/203276937-Using-Personal-Meeting-ID-PMI->

Calendar: Upcoming Professional Development Opportunities

Check out upcoming professional development opportunities! The TILT TigerLearn event calendar is your go-to for professional development at FHSU! Check it out here: <http://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/events/>.

To provide faculty and staff with one easy place to see all professional development at FHSU, we're happy to include your event on the TigerLearn calendar. We can include links to your registration site, contact persons for questions, etc. Just contact TILT-FacultyDev@fhsu.edu, and we'll add your event right away!

Bigcat.fhsu.edu Decommissioning in August!

Technology Services is decommissioning the old production webserver, also known as Bigcat (bigcat.fhsu.edu). Most of the content on Bigcat is no longer used, however, we believe some content is still active and in use. If you are still actively using, updating, or linking to content on this server, you must reach out to Earl Ruder in University Relations and Marketing to have this content migrated as soon as possible.

Effective on Friday May 29th, the content will be frozen and no updates will be allowed on bigcat.fhsu.edu.

On Monday, August 10th, all remaining content will be archived and the server will be decommissioned. Requests for archived content to be migrated after August 10th can be directed to Earl Ruder.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to Earl at earl.ruder@fhsu.edu or by phone at (628)-4070.

MDC Online Workshop "Supervising Virtually" Still Being Offered On-Demand

Deadline extended until August 31*

If you weren't able to attend the MDC's previous online workshop "Supervising Virtually," you can now access it on-demand until August 31! This workshop explores the five fundamental supervisory skills through a virtual lens, as well as strategies to adapt to today's unique challenges and circumstances. This workshop is facilitated by Dr. Robert Lloyd and includes engaging activities to better understand effective supervisory concepts.

Registration for this workshop is $30. Register online at fhsu.edu/mdc.

Fall 2020 TILT Course Resource Page and Workshops

FHSU has put together great resources, workshops, and a faculty support network to help you plan for the development of your Fall Courses. You can access these resources on TILT's TigerLearn Blog by following this link: <https://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/fall-2020/>

A number of FHSU Faculty members have volunteered their skills and expertise in specific areas such as Blackboard, video creation, and online classroom participation. You will find the FHSU Faculty Resource Network at: <https://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/fhsu-faculty-resource-network/>

To kick things off the TILT team will be leading a 'Levelling Up with Blackboard' workshop. Those who chose to participate in this workshop will have an immersive learning experience from the student perspective to learn about the essential tools and features in Blackboard. This is an asynchronous two-week workshop for those who want to get more comfortable with Blackboard and will cover topics such as Ultra Base Navigation, grade center, assignments, and creating tests in Blackboard.

This is a cohort workshop for a group of 15-25 faculty members and it will be offered twice this month. Please follow the links below to register.

The first cohort begins July 13th: <https://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/event/leveling-up-with-blackboard-2/>

The second cohort begins July 20th: <https://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/event/leveling-up-with-blackboard/>

Tiger Food Exchange Location/Hours Change

The Tiger Food Exchange has moved back to Forsyth Library as of Thursday, July 9.

Our new hours will be from 10am to 1pm Tuesday through Thursday. Currently, these hours are effective through August 17.

Masks are strongly encouraged for all persons entering the Forsyth Lobby. All persons should observe proper social distancing and hygiene protocols as indicated by signage and floor markings while in the Library.

BbWorld 2020 To Be Held July 21 & 22 – Virtual and Free

For those who are interested in a more detailed exploration of Blackboard, BbWorld is Blackboard's annual EdTech conference begins next week. You can meet to share best practices, learn about innovations in technology, get hands-on training, and discuss industry trends.

There are programs for every role on our campus, and I've included links to filtered sessions below so you can easily browse them:

- Faculty & Trainers
- Academic Technologists & Instructional Designers
- IT Leaders
- Technology Professionals

- Student Success / Marketing & Enrollment Professionals
- Leadership & Administrators

This is a great opportunity to connect with colleagues and industry leaders.

You can also search by program theme (such as learning continuity, inclusivity, analytics, etc.). (FYI, you'll need to register for the conference first before signing up for specific sessions.)

FHSU Faculty/Staff 2020-2021 Parking Permits Now Available

The 2020-2021 parking permits are available now. You can save time by reserving your permit on-line, which is accessed through your TigerTracks account.

You will find the link for purchasing permits under the 'Online Services' tab in your TigerTracks account. Once there, the process is fairly simple and straight-forward—be sure to click PAY NOW in your cart to finish the process to reserve your permit. You will not be charged! Permits have been granted to Faculty/Staff again this year but you must finish the process to the end.

Here are the steps to purchase your parking permit:

How to Purchase your Parking Permit Online

- Step 1: Log into Tiger Tracks
- Step 2: Go to Online Services
- Step 3: Scroll down to Parking Permits
- Step 4: Click on purchase a parking permit
- Step 5: Click on Manage Account and login
 - Make sure the Information is correct
 - Click on vehicles at the top of the screen and verify information
 - Click add if your vehicle is not in the system
- Step 6: Click on Permits and select Get Permits
- Step 7: Select what type of Permit you need and click the agreement box
- Step 8: Check which vehicle you want that permit for,
 - if you have multiple vehicles select those, and then click next
- Step 9: Click where you would like it mailed or if you will pick it up at University Police
- Step 10: Select payment option and click Pay Now
- Step 11: Congratulations You're Done!!

ALL faculty and staff are required to register their vehicles on-line each school year, in order to receive their permit, regardless if the vehicle had been registered the prior year. If any faculty or staff members have any unpaid citations, they will need to come to the University Police Department located in the Center of Public Safety, Custer Hall 112, to settle their outstanding balance prior to applying for a parking permit. The parking management system will not allow anyone to purchase a new permit while still having any unpaid citations.

You are encouraged to read the Parking Brochure for a full list of parking violations, fines, and restrictions of a motor vehicle on Fort Hays State University campus. Deadline to reserve and hang your permit is August 24.

Thank you for your cooperation, and have a great year!

If you need assistance, contact FHSU Police Department 785-628-5304.

Sustainability Task Force – GA Position Available!

During the Spring 2020 SGA Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) process, the FHSU SGA funded one $12,000 GA position for the Sustainability Task Force.

The position is best suited a graduate student has interest in sustainable development, and need of support for graduate programs at FHSU for the upcoming academic year.

The general description of this graduate assistant (GA) position will be to assist the Sustainability Task Force in a number of key areas to further the causes associated with Sustainable Development at FHSU. For application submissions and inquiries about details, please submit materials to: Sustainability@fhsu.edu . Deadline is July 31st.

Key language from the approved EOF proposal describes the position and submission materials:

“Sustainability Task Force, Graduate Student Intern: Generally, a graduate assistant working with the Sustainability Task Force, to achieve key outcomes that are important to the university-wide and community-wide membership of the Sustainability Task Force. These include but are not limited to:

- Activities associated with upgrading the Task Force to a University-wide committee
- Active and integrated communication across the campus community about all sustainability activities
- With members of the Sustainability Task Force, friend-raising and fund-raising to establish long-term funding for Sustainability initiatives at FHSU
- Documenting the FHSU sustainability successes and challenges, toward the objective of external recognition for FHSU

Eligibility criteria:

1. Graduate student at FHSU expressing passion for one of the many areas of Sustainable Development, under the broad areas of “People, Planet, Prosperity, Peace, and Partnership”
 - a. Note: As suggested previously, the tenets of Sustainable Development are very broad; the interests and passion for Sustainable Development span wider than the various graduate degree programs offered at FHSU.
2. Demonstrated comfort and skill (or very strong potential) in communicating with faculty, staff, and students to attain the objectives listed previously.

3. Demonstrated comfort and skill (or very strong potential) to self-start and independently achieve weekly objectives.
4. Demonstrated comfort and skill (or very strong potential) in documenting and organization data and information in various forms, for the purposes of communicating to stakeholders of the Sustainability Task Force.

Means for assessing criteria:

Application materials should include a resume with references, and responses that describe how the student meets the four eligibility criteria immediately above. These will be evaluated by the Dean of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, and the Chair of the Sustainability Task Force.

Beginning French I Class – Available Online this Fall!

Have you always wanted to learn another language? Are you looking for a class to fulfill general education credit hours in the Humanities? Do you need foreign language credit hours toward a B.A.? If you answered yes to any of these questions, Modern Languages will be offering MLNG 201, Beginning French I, in a total online format (TOL) this fall. This French course will feature an open educational resource / low-cost textbook for the first time, which will cost students approximately $25. (Please note that the traditional online course uses a different textbook.) Learning a language can be a great way to build your resume, experience another culture (such as through stories, shows, and music), enhance your perspective, develop critical thinking skills, and improve cognitive function. If you have any questions about this course, please contact Dr. Elizabeth Langley at eclangley@fhsu.edu.

LDRS 120: Introduction to the Military as an Organization – Available this Fall!

Attention FHSU Students! The Department of Leadership Studies will be offering LDRS 120: Introduction to the Military as an Organization in a total on-campus (TOC) format this fall. This 3-credit hour course will introduce students to different aspects of military life and skill sets associated with soldiering. This class may be an option to try out for those interested in serving. The course is available for both military and non-military students enrolled in any major. Organizational Leadership students will be able to count this as a major elective.

If you have any questions about this course, please contact Dr. Seth Kastle at sdkastle@fhsu.edu.

To submit an article for Tiger Daily, please create a new message and email it to tigerdaily@fhsu.edu before 10:00 a.m. Items received after 10:00 a.m. will run the next business day.
